Honorable Aleta Trauger:

I am writing you today to plead for leniency in sentencing Mr. Coleman Boyd and the other 5 co-defendants convicted of violating the FACE act on 3-5-21. Your Honor, they are not violent criminals, and should not be sent away for years into a federal penitentiary. That would not be good for them, their families, nor for society as a whole. I plead with you to exercise mercy and leniency. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Brian Farrell

Dear Honorable Trauger

There are many things happening to us in America that is changing the whole landscape of our great nation. One of those is the freedom to assemble and protest peaceably. I was recently made aware of a group of Nashville citizens who were peaceably protesting at an abortion clinic, some were arrested and tried. They will soon face sentencing.

I am a 91 year old man, raised in a family of eleven on a farm in Bedford County, Virginia. It troubles me that in my growing up years, we enjoyed lots of freedoms that are now being taken away from us today. For that reason I am asking you in your sentencing of these six (6) pro-life citizens to please be lenient. These individuals were peacefully expressing their concerns without causing harm to anyone. The ones who were being harmed and whom these protestors were attempting to protect were the unborn who had no representation or voice.

Thank you for what you do.

Sincerely,

James E Falls
